

A GAME OF POLITICS.

"Nevadan," the Gazette's favorite correspondent, in his latest argument against the Silver Leagues, seeks to justify the shameful slaughter of the Bland bill "because the Republicans were trying to force the Democrats to commit themselves to free coinage at the expense of the next Presidency." With the free wool bill the circumstances were entirely different. The Republicans were determined to ignore, if possible, that issue, while the Democrats were equally as determined to force it upon them, it being a game of politics in both instances.

Exactly so. Free coinage and free wool are simply games of politics with these two parties. With them there is no principle involved in either question. It is simply a matter of party success. Either party would adopt free coinage if they could secure the gold-bug influence thereby at the election, and both would adopt free wool if they could secure the influence of the combines and trusts by so doing.

Then we put the question to any self-respecting Republican or Democrat who has the modicum of common sense, if the Silver Leagues should step lightly for fear they might hurt the corns or puncture the carbuncles of either of these parties?

Is either of these parties so dear or the success of either so sweet "as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?"—Silver State.

Helena Silver Convention.

There was a great silver convention at Denver last Fall. It was composed of over 600 delegates, and among them some of the strongest men in the nation. It was resolved by that convention that a similar gathering should be held once a year until relief was had for silver. The next convention is called for the first Monday in July at Helena, Montana. The date is significant and was fixed for a purpose. It comes after both of the old parties shall have held their national conventions and made their nominations. Here will be the opportunity for the silver men. The next President of the United States may be named at Helena. The silver sentiment of Nevada must be strongly represented in that convention. Let not the people of Nevada forget this important meeting.—Sentinel.

A private letter was shown us yesterday, in which an Eastern man was discussing the question. We do not remember exactly the wording but in substance it was this:

"A good deal is said about a fifty-cent silver dollar. As I look upon it a fifty-cent silver dollar means a two dollar gold dollar, and if the fifty-cent dollar is a swindle the two-dollar gold dollar is an infernal thief."

About all the philosophy of the silver question is contained in that paragraph.—Salt Lake Tribune.

Let every voter keep this fundamental principle of the silver question in mind. The people have been muddled on the silver question with too lengthy speeches and pamphlets. By keeping the above paragraph in mind you can never go astray.

Our evening contemporary is fearful lest a third party movement come in the interests of silver. Some years ago, when Hill ran for the ticket for Sheriff the Tribune joined a third party movement with great gusto, but it got its orders from the V. & T. R. R. Company, and had to. If it got similar orders now to do so, it would wheel in line and do some very vociferous shouting. The attitude of a paper that is always obliged to consult its masters before it speaks can never be relied upon as a faithful exponent either of the opinion of the public or its own. The attitude of the APPEAL on the silver question is endorsed by nine-tenths of the people of this city.

The APPEAL wishes to notify its contemporaries in this city that it will be too busy during the next few months, fighting for the cause of free silver, to pay any attention to their snarlings. Their opposition to the spontaneous silver movement now going on in this country will not impede it in the least. The only regret we have in the matter is that their protest does not amount to enough to even create renewed activity on the part of the silver men. If their blows had a little more weight they might really be of benefit to the cause they oppose. A gold bug in Nevada is a large thing, but in Nevada it is only a gnat.
